erected; marked there to by those Firebrands, Sprigs, the greatly admir'd Milton, who made open Declaration would write himself Blind (which happened to him) but be holding the Kings Head to the Block
 - the poor Prince, was England's Sin, not thine,
 That caus'd this change this Life, for that Divine.

To the Reader,

GENTLEMEN,

Ungenerous Treatment I have met with (as I told last Year) from some Persons, made me resolve to decline my Annual Task, and to give my self no further trouble in these Calculations, or the World any thing further from me: But some particular Friends are not willing I should do so, and will have me continue it, assuring me, that the performance shall not pass unrewarded.
Inviting Importunities hath made me alter my Intention, and prevail'd upon me to take my Pen in hand, To those Worthy Persons, that have honour'd me with good esteem, and who indeed are compleat Judges of what I have taken in my former Calculations which I am apprehensive adds no small Reputation to this under-taking, for so I can't but deem my self, by reason of my and subtle Detractors, who, were it not for the Laws of Honour (I wou'd as readily make an attempt to Murder my self as my Reputation, for he that will be Guilty of One, will be guilty of many) to effect the other. But, many favours I have received from my Constant, General true Friend, hath made me overlook those Obstacles, and I can assure all Lovers of Astronomy, that by his helpful assistance, here is presented to view, the most Exact Ephemeris of the Planets Motions, that perhaps hitherto the World never Saw, it being Produced from bright Tables that have yet appear'd in Publick, tho' tis hoped they may in some Time come to light, Withall I here return my greatest acknowledgments to that Unknown Son of Urania who has wou'd to favour me with his Labourious Calculations of the Moon for the present Year, which I have reason to think will be very accurately perform'd, with which I take my leave, who am

Your Annual Servant

Ball in Court,

George Parker

In Laudem Authoris.

URANIA's Darling once more doth appear With his Celestial Motions for one Year?
He unto us their Courses doth impart
According to the nicest Rules of Art.
For all his Labour, and industrious Pains,
To please Urania, his Brethren has the Gains.
But Oh what Mortal Creature can unfold
The secret Mysteries are above enrol'd, Here envious Saturn must his Pranks lay by,
When Joyn'd with Luna, and swift Mercury, Bright Sol and Mars, with their ambitious Pride,
And wanton Venus, when she's not a Bride.
Who dares disprove, or else who can deny
The mighty Influence of the starry Sky?
The Sun, the Moon, the Stars created were For Signs and Seasons Scripture proves it clear.
Why carp you then so at Astrology,
And envy those who converse with the Sky?
Shall spiteful K——ly fly Invectives give On Active PARKER so long as Gadbury live?
Let Momus frown, and Zoilus spend his Breath,
And by their Envy pine themselves to Death,
So long as PARKER thus is made our own,
What cleaner Artist can on Earth be shown?
So will I raise him on the Wings of Fame
And eccho forth Great Favour'd PARKER's Name will be Six Eclipses this Year, Three of each Luminary, which happen in the following Order: According to the Computation of an Ingenious Astronomical Friend.

Of the Moon January 2 Day, of which a very small Eclipse will be seen at London, for the Eclipse will be almost over the Moon rises, it continuing but 38 Minutes after the setting of the Sun, January 16 Day at 19 Minutes after 8 o'clock, therefore Invisible.

Of the Moon on the 28th of June 40 Minutes after 6 o'clock Morning Invisible.

A small Eclipse of the Sun July 13th in the Morning.
The Beginning will be at 22 Minutes 13 Seconds after 7, and at 37 Minutes after 8, the Parts Eclipsed will be 15 Minutes 4 Seconds on the North or upper Part.

Also of the Sun December 7th at Midnight Invisible.

The last is of the Moon, December 22d the Beginning at 29 Minutes 29 Seconds after 4, and the End will be at 49 Seconds after 4. So that the Moon will rise but we shall have but a small view thereof for it will be more than 3 Parts over, when the Moon Rises.

And sure Way, if a Chimney be on Fire, how to Extinguish it.

If a Chimney be on Fire, and is in great Danger of setting the House or Building in a Flame. Take the Fire Hearth, and set a Tub or Vessel of Water in the Place thereof: Then wet a Blanket or such thing in Water, and Nail it to the Mantlepiece and Sides of the Chimney, so that it reaches the Hearth to keep it from the Chimney; which done, you will soon find the Fire to tumble down.

Considering the great Mischiefs that frequently happen by, and those most Generally by the Carelessness of Servants, whereby whole Families are often utterly Ruin'd, and To prevent such Unhappy Accidents; It is Enacted By Act of Q. Ann. That if any such Fire happen by Negligence of any Servant, They shall Forfeit and Pay 100 Shillings but if Poor and Unable, &c. Then to be Committed to the House of Correction, to be kept to Hard Labour for Months.

To Battersea, Chelsea, Mortlock, &c. at one or two before the High Water.

Directions for all Persons that hire Water or Hackney Coach-Men.

I. Persons Passing by Water.

THERE'S no Occasion for making a Bargain with a Water-Man before-Hand; but at whatever Stairs you see a Water-Man waiting for a Fair, call to him, and bid him carry you to the Place where you desire to Land; when you are landed, pay him according to the fore-going Rates; which if he refuses to accept, demands more, take his Name or the Number of his Boat. When that is known, give him more Money than he demands, and demand your Change, charging him at his Peril to give you no more than his Due; this done, go quietly away. If he has taken more than his appointed Fair, go to Water-Mans-Hall near the Old Swan, and enquire of the Clerk, to whom relate your Business, giving him the Number of the Boat, or the Name of the Water-Man.

This being done, the Clerk will Summon him to the Hall, and answer the Complaint where you desire to have Justice done you, and the Person punished as the fault deserves.

N. B. By a late Precept from the Lord Mayor, to Disasters, all Wherries plying on Sundays, are ordered over no more than 8 Persons at a Time.

II. Hackney Coach-Men.

What is related about Water-Men, will serve for Direction in the Affairs of Hackney Coach-Men; let the Weather be Wet or Dry, or the Time be Day or Night, it's the same to you, get into the Coach, and order the Coach-Man to drive you to the Place you desire to go to, and if he behave himself as is Spoken of the Water-Men, take the Number of his Coach, and give Information of him, at the Office for Licensing Hackney Coaches, in St. Dunstons-Street in the Strand, where his Insolence will be
